

Coach Brittney Scott is in her 5th season as head coach for the Lady Cougars of Coconut Creek High School. Where she also serves as assistant director of athletics. Brittney was born as an only child and raised by a single mother in Brooklyn, New York. Coach Scott's love for basketball and coaching came at an early age watching childhood idols Michael Jordan and Phil Jackson with the mid to late 1990's Chicago Bulls teams. As a teenager she attended Charlotte High School in Punta Gorda, Florida home of the fighting tarpons. Coach Scott was a four-year varsity letter winner in both basketball and track and field. Her basketball career continued at Barry University in Miami Shores, Florida for 2 seasons. As a Buccaneer she earned her bachelors' degree in Sports Management.

Scott has over 10 years of coaching experience. She has coached and has had success on levels from middle school and AAU up to high school and wishes to make the jump to the collegiate level very soon. At the age of 21 Coach Scott became one of the youngest head coaches in Broward County leading the lady bobcats of West Broward High School to back to back regional playoff berths as well capturing the academic state title in Class 8A for the highest gpa for winter sports in 2013. Coach will continue to inspire and lead young women in life through the game of basketball. "The sport of basketball has given me so much and I just want to reciprocate that to today's youth".
